

Alphabet Cookie Tray Activity

Directions:

Each page works on five letters. You will need to get out three of the same magnetic letters for each letter addressed on the page. Place the printable on a cookie sheet, and have child place magnetic letter on the pictures that start with that letter.

For more practice download the cut and paste activity with handwriting practice, as well as the Free game. Both activities use the same pictures so the children can focus on the beginning sounds, not learning new pictures.

The last card is a review. You will need the 15 letters written at the top of the page.
