Baseball Division

Prep Work -

- Print off baseball game board on card stock paper
- Print off score sheet and division sheet
- Gather up unifix cubes in two different colors, calculator, and one ten sided die.

Directions -

1. Player one rolls the die and writes that number in the first box on division sheet. They continue to roll, filling up the rest of the squares. Then, they solve the problem. Player two checks the division problem with the calculator.
2. If player one is correct, they use the guide at the bottom of the score sheet to determine how many bases they move up. If there are any cubes on a base those cubes move up too.
3. Player one continues until they miss a problem, get two strike outs, or earn three runs. Then it is players two's turn.
4. The player with the most runs after three rounds wins!!!
