

49. A store bought 8910 boxes of cereal with an average cost of $5 per box. What is the total cost of the cereal?

Answer:

50. A hotel has 1234 rooms and needs to buy 2 towels each. How many towels should they buy?

Answer:

51. A company sold 4567 products at a price of $5 each. What is the total revenue from the sales?

Answer:

52. A hospital has 3456 beds and needs to buy 2 pillows each. How many pillows should they buy?

Answer:

53. A carpenter needs to make 2578 wooden chairs, each requiring 8 screws. How many screws does the carpenter need in total?

Answer:

54. A school has 1834 students and each student needs 2 books for their studies. How many books does the school need to buy?

Answer:

55. A car dealership sold 6983 cars last year. Each car has an average weight of 3 tonnes. What was the total weight of all the cars sold?

Answer:

56. A factory produces 4567 packets of chips, each containing 8 chips. How many chips did the factory produce in total?

Answer:

57. A company has 2365 employees and each employee needs 4 pens for their work. If pens come in boxes of 50, how many boxes of pens does the company need to buy?

Answer:

58. A grocery store has 1534 customers and each customer purchases 3 items on average. How many boxes of items does the store need to buy?

Answer:

59. A hotel has 789 rooms and each room has 2 beds. If each bed requires 4 pillows, how many pillows does the hotel need to buy in total?

Answer:

60. A factory produces 3984 bottles of soda, each containing 2 litre. How many liters of soda did the factory produce in total?

Answer: